CITY MATTERS.

METHOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS-For the Penny Press, by Henry Ware, Optician, No. 7 West Fourth-street

FATAL ACCIDENT-CHILD KILLED BY FALLING FROM A PORCH.—Quite a bright little girl, of five years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Negly, who reside on Pike-street, near Columbis, fell from a porch in the rear of the building, day before yesterday, and was in-jured so seriously that she died yesterday morning at five o'clock.

In company with some children, about the same age, she was playing on the porch, the balustrade of which was defective, some of the rounds having been broken out. She had seen one of her companions pass through these spertures, and holding on by the railing walk round the outside; but when she attempted it, she became frightened, lost her hold and fall to the personner beautiful free. hold and fell to the pavement beneath, fracturing her skull, and, as we have said, causer death. Although the sincerest wishes of the heart seldom escape from their imprisonment, once in a while a sigh will burst through the inclosure of the lips, and a prayer, fashioned in words, ascend to Heaven. This is not often the case; for the best prayer is a heart-throb or the upward looks of a tearful eye; but the sentence sometimes is heard—"Father! Let the beautiful ever live." Who will say that the fact is not mirrored in the wish? Here and hereafter it exists, ever young and levely, like Psyche, and not all the arrows of the archer Death can destroy it. This we offer to the mother: The delicate face and sunny eyes of thy golden-haired babe are merely invisible, and in a better sphere, when thou, too, hast faded from the sight of those thou hast loved, and by whom thou hast been loved, the rosy voice of thy angel child will bid thee welcome to a land where beauty resides forever, unchanged and unchanging.

BURGLARY ON LIBERTY-STREET.-Burglaries, just at present, in this city, at least, seem to be the most popular method of thie ving. Almost nightly some dwelling is invaded by scoundrels and ransacked. Ordinarily, they carry off nothing but money, and thus they clude detection, while, if they happen, during their oper-ations, to be discovered, the chances for escape are all in their favor. Night before last a house located on Liberty-street, near Sycamore, occupied by a German tailor, named John Holtshelmer, was feloniously entered and robbed of $46 in money and several half-made garments. The burglars climbed through a window at the rear of the building and found their booty in a bureau-drawer, which con-tained some other valuable articles they did not happen to discover, or if they did, thought it would not be best to take. They escaped detection, and not until yesterday at noon did the family become aware that they had been honored by the presence of nocturnal visitors.

INDIANAPOLIS AND CINCINNATI RAILROAD. We are pleased to know that the amount of travel over the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Railroad is large for the season, and that the aggregate business is not to be exceeded by that of any other road of same length in the West. The management is awake to all the improvements of the day; consequently, the rolling stock is of the best and most approved kind, and in keeping with the character of a first-class road. Their passenger cars, in charge of attentive conductors, are controlled patent brake, enabling stop a train under full headway in a run of sixty feet, and are pleasant, comfortable convayances. The Conductors, Hall, Eustis, Barringer, Lord and Wents, are never forgotten hose so fortunate as to travel with them, and aid, by their uniform cloverness and gendemanly conduct, to give the Indianapelis and Cincinnati road a reputation at home and

FINALE OF THE ROW ON THE BOULEVARD DE SAUBAGE.—Our issue of yesterday contained an account of a fight which occurred in a drinking-house in Sausage-row, kept by a man named Patrick Brown, in which James O'Neill was severely injured. The parties were before the Police Court yesterday morning, although O'Nelll was still very weak from the loss of blood. The man who had been injured took the stand, but refused to testify in regard to the facts in the case, saying he knew nothing of the affair. Some other witnesses were called, who related the circumstances which we have already placed before our readers. In view provocation which had been given, Brown was fined only $10 and costs, while O'Neill, for contempt of Court, was mulcted in a fine of $20 and costs, and ordered to be confined in the County Jail until they were paid.

REQUISITION FROM KENTUCKY FOR THE DES PERADO KENNEDY.—Sheriff Kessler received a message from Governor Chase yesterday, accompanied by a requisition from the Gov-ernor of Kentucky, authorizing him to deliver the body of George Kennedy, the burglar, who, a short time ago, shot George Ballage on the corner of John and Clinton-streets, into the hands of an officer from Frankfort, Kentucky. Kennedy, it appears, owes our sister State some service, having escaped from the peni-tentiary there some time ago. He undoubt-edly deserves all the punishment he will get; for the man whom he wounded here has not yet recovered from his injuries, and for this offense and the circumstances connected with it, when brought to trial, he will receive, in all probability, a sentence for a few years service at Columbus.

RECOVERY OF A STOLEN WATCH. - A man named Forbus had his pocket picked at the Opera-house, a month or two ago of a valuable gold watch and chain. The different pawn-brokers were notified of the fact, but during all this time, until day before yesterday, it was not seen. On Wednesday, however, an indi-vidual offered it at an office on Vine street, and it was immediately recognized. The pawn-broker immediately sent for the officers, but when they arrived the man had vanished. Mr. Forbus was visited, and yesterday morning received his watch after paying for it a munificent reward.

A PITTSEURGER SWINDLED-ANOTHER SUC-David D. Haven, a Pittsburger, stopping at the Galt House, in this city, was yesterday swindled out of $19 50, nearly all the money he had, in the following manner: He was met at the Little Miami Railroad Depot by a man who, after introducing himself, became so friendly that he was induced at last to walk up town with him. Upon the way they talked of business, and just as they reached the Burnet House, Haven was informed by his companion that he had purchased a lot of books, and that the clerk of the establishment at which they were bought was approaching with the bill, which was $22. This amount he asked H. to lend him, but he gave him only $19 50, which the swindler said he would refund as soon as he had seen him only the many labels. his uncle, who was in his room at the Burnet, He passed into the house and thorugh it, out at the private entrance and disappeared. The poor fellow whom he had so easily sold, waited long, but in vain-"saw the sun go down, but still he came not," and then told his story to the officers at the Ninth-street Station-house.

CONVENTION OF RAILBOAD TICKET AGENTS. The Convention of Ticket Agents yesterday adopted the rates of passenger fares which we published yesterday, and after passing the following resolutions, adjourned, to meet at Pittsburg on the second Wednesday of

WHEREAS, The payment of commissions to outside persons for the purpose of soliciting passengers is still carried on to a great extent, many roads here represented; therefore,

Resolved, That we regard the payment of commission by reilroad companies to runners and others, as a virtual reduction of fare by the company employing them. Resolved, That we disapprove of the practice, and will discountenance it to the utmost on the part of the companies we represent. MAN KILLED BY THE ACCIDENTAL DISCHARGE OF A GUN.—A man named Henry Lybargor, residing near Millwood, in this State, was shot dead on Wednesday last by the accidental discharge of a gun. He was using the butt of it for the purpose of knocking apples from a tree, not thinking there was any danger in so doing, although he knew it was loaded. While in this act, however, the gun was discharged, and the contents entered his breast, killing him almost instantly. He was forty-five years of age, had a family, and in the neigh-borhood in which he resided was highly respected.

SAD AFFAIR—AN OLD LADY BURNT TO DEATH.—Mrs. Mary Miller, a lady ninety-eight years of age, mother of Judge Miller, of Mount Vernon, Ohio, was burnt to death a few days ago, at the residence of her son. In passing a hot stove her clothes came in contact with it, and caught fire, while she, being quite feeble, the result of the extreme age, could not exort herself sufficiently to quench the flames, and before assistance reached her she was so badly wounded that she died in a few hours.

THE BURNET HOUSE .- The following wellleserved compliment to the gentlemanly proprietors of the Burnet House and their comfortable establishment we take from the Cleveland Herald. It says:

"The Burnet House, Cincinnati, under its present management, is certainly one of the best appointed and managed hotels in this or any other country. Messrs Johnson, Sanders & Co. are constantly on the look out for all the attentions necessary to the comforts of their numerous guests. The arrangements of their meal hours are admirable for the conrenience of business men and the departure and arrival of trains.

POLICE COURT.—Business was dull as could se wished at the Police Court yesterday morning, and although twenty-two cases were ex-amined, no incident of importance was developed. Mathias Miller, who was charged with the larceny of some unmade coats, by Leonard Kohn, of Main-street, was discharged by Judge Lowe. The prosecuting witness was not certain in regard to his identity, and the defendant asserted positively that for ten years past he had been working for a firm on Pearlstreet. A man, whose name we have forgot-ten, was brought in upon two different charges of assault and battery. A large number of witnesses were examined and the cases consol-idated. He was deemed guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and costs—the whole amount reaching $18. Rather a large price for the pleasure of going through a "little mill."

MAN DROWNED NEAR MILL CREEK .- A man named Thomas Joyce, while in an intoxicated e ondition, attempted, yesterday about noon, to eross the river in a skiff, just below the mouth of Mill Creek. When about half-way across, he tried to change his position, but in doing so fell overboard, and before assistance could reach him, was drowned. The unfortunate man, we believe, has a wife and family who reside near the place where he was drowned, to whom he has been a pest for some years, in consequence of his habits. Every effort has been made, but up to a late hour last evening the body had CINCINNATI TROTTING PARK,-There will be a race over the Cincinnati Trotting Park tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock, with one of the most attractive entries of the season. The purse and stake is $200, and the race two-mile heats to wagons. From what we have heard in regard to the horses which have been entered, this is likely to prove one of the best-contested "horse disputes" of the season. The extra train over the Hamilton and Dayton Railroad will leave the depot at half-past two o'clock for the mace course.

Body IDENTIFIED .- The body of the man found in the river near Milicreek, mentioned in our issue of yesterday, has been identified as that of the 1 tackman Neiless, who, it will be remembered, was drowned a few weeks ago at the foot of Walnut-street. The man leaves a wife and two children, who reside some place on Jackson-street, and are in quite a needy condition.

MEETING OF CITY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION .-The City Board of Equalization met yesterday and received the resignation of Hiram Clearwater. Ely [C. Baldwin was recommended to fill the vacancy, and Council at its next session will in all probability mak the appointment. The Board now consists of the persons: George Wiltshire, R. R. Springer, N. Bartlett, Wm. Cameron, Charles Schmidt, Howard Matthews (ex-officio) per his deputy, John E. Bell.

A CINCINNATI BREWER IN INDIANAPOLIS.-The Indianapolis Sentinel says that a wealthy German gentleman from Cincinnati has purchased a fourth of a square of ground on Woodson street, between Delaware and Eaststreets, in that city, on which he intends erecting a large brewery, and that he has already commonced with a large force of hands exca-vating for thecellars and foundations.

EUROPEAN REMITTANCES.—Mesers. James F. Mellne & Co., No. 17 West Third-street, are prepared to attend to remittances: to England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales, its sums of £1 and upward, as will be seen by reference to their advertisement in another column. This firm is well known in this community as being

AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT.-We acknowledge the receipt from John Clingman, of the firm of B. M. Ayres & Co., Dayton, of a myste-rious package, ordered to be opened in the presence of friends and "in the new of the moon." Our thoughtful friend may rest as-sured that the injunction will be faithfully complied with.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—At the session of the Board of County Commissioners yes terday morning, orders were passed amounting in the aggregate to $261 16, of which $163 18 was paid to John Malone, for stone for the Carthage-road.

Apart from this no business we we transacted.

Bargs House, Indiawapolity.—The above house, now under the supervision of "mine host" Judson—who has as well assued the proprietorship—is the most popular hotel in Indiana. It has a large patron up, send being conducted on a plan similar to the Eastern hotels, cannot fail to have a continuance of the same. Captain Hartwell, class, and Charley Judson, Jr., assistant, are court sensed affable gentlemen, and we commend them to the traveling public as such.

DEATH OF A FIREMAN. - Benjamin Franklin, who for some time past has been engineer of the steam fire-engine "Marion," died yester-day of consumption. His funeral will take place from his residence, to-day, and will be attended by the firemen and Odd-Fellows, of which body he was an esteemed member.

Personal.-Edward Crapsey, Esq., who, since the resignation of Dennis J. Toohy, has cocupied the position of Clerk of the Probate Court, was admitted yesterday to practice at the Bar. Mr. C. is a young gentleman of cul-ture and ability, and, in the profession he has chosen, will doubtless meet with success.

PHILLIPS HOUSE, DAYFON, OHIO. - This popular hotel, under the management of Mr. J. R. Hubbell, has gained an extensive reputation among the traveling public, and may truly be set down as A No. 1. An attentive landlord, spleudid table and polite servants may always be found at the "Phillips."

UNITED STATES COURT. - In the United States Court yesterday, in the case of the lessee of John C. Parish oz. George Suttles et. al., suit for ejectment, a verdict was rendered

boat Diamond was sold yesterday at auction for the astounding sum of $500. At this rate, one of these days, every family be able to own a boat and take indiscriminate pleasure excur-FAMILY SEWING MACHINE. - Bartlett's patent in another column, is within the reach of every family. OTSTERS EVERY DAY.—Waggoner's import-ng oyster house, 203 Western-row, above Fifth, is receiving splendid oysters every day. Be sure to buy of Waggoner if you want your oysters right fresh. OYSTERS THAT ARE OYSTERS.—Oysters are an institution, decidedly, and we know of no better place in the city to purchase a good article than at the establishment of Mr. P. Cavagna, No. 31 West Fifth-street.

AMUSEMENTS.

WOOD'S THEATER-BENEFIT OF MR. ANDRE-

Wood's Theater—Benefit of Mr. Anderson.—As might have been expected, Vinginitis drew a capital house to Wood's Theater. Whenever Mr. Anderson appears we may expect to see a fine performance, and in some respects better than of most actors. Although he has faults, he has also great merit, and he gives to every thing he undertakes a beautiful finish, while his powers as an elocution is set the poetry of his author to music.

That his Vinginitus last night was remarkably fine is all that we have time or space to say, and even this seems superfinous. The "Virginia" of Mrs. Effic Ellelor was a sweeter creature than we had expected to see, although fully aware of her merit. Mr. Langdon enacted the part of "Icilius" cleverly, and the play as a whole was admirably rendered.

To-night has been set apart for the benefit of Mr. Anderson, and the bill is Mous A DO ADOUT NOTHING and Maransons, in both of which Mr. A and Miss Klieworthy will appear. With such attractions as these, there will, doubtless, be an overflowing house.

Pikk's Opera-House—The Parodi Opera

Pikk's Opena-House—The Paroni Opena Troupe.—This really excellent company sang It. Troupe.—This really excellent company sang It. Troupe.—The parts and the opena through-out were admirably sung, and the artists were liber-ally and sometimes whomeanly applauded. It was the last night of their appearance in this city, and instead of speaking of the performance, which we enjoyed very much, and which was excellent, we will bid them adieu.

They have not been half so well patronized as they deserve, and their visit to the city has been somewhat disastrous, pocuniarily. Personally, we have taken great pleasure from those portions of their representation we have been able to witness, and their disastrous, pocuniarily. Personally, we have taken great pleasure from those portions of their representation we have been able to witness, and will hail with delight the next opportunity we shall have of sgala hearing and witnessing their performances. That they may have better success in the South, in which they intend to spend the winter, many friends will wish them, but none more heartily than we.

SUPERIOR COURT. GENERAL TERM .- The Judges sat in General Term, and heard an argument in the case of The Niles Works against the City, a proceeding in error

Nies Works against the City, a proceeding in error to reverse the judgment at Special Term, which was rendered in favor of the city.

The action below was to recover for a loss sustained by the Niles Works by the falling of their building, alleged to have resulted from the insmitciency of a sawer constructed by the city, and the error claimed was chiefly in the charge to the jury by Judge Gholson, who instructed them, in substants, that when the proprietor of ground through which a stream flowed changed the natural channel, so as to discharge the water on the party below him at a different manner from that in which it was accustomed to flow naturally, and the proprietor below undertook to continue that work so as to carry the water off from himself, (as was alleged to be the case of the city in continuing Mr. Longworth's culvert,) he was bound only to use good faith and ordinary skill and diligence in he work, and if he did use such, and an injury accrued to the first proprietor, he was not liable therefor.

A great many nice points arose in the case, which was argued by Mr. Perry for the plaintiff in error, and by Mr. Hayes for the city.

HAMILTON COUNTY DISTRICT COURT. Warden es. Starbuck & Co .- The entire of warden es. Starouck & Co.—The entire of yesterday was occupied in hearing the rebutting testimony adduced on the part of the plaintiff in this libel suit. Among the witnesses called to the stand were the plaintiff and defendant. The case is still good for another day or two.

HABEAS CORPUS.—A writ of habeas corpus was seed out on behalf of Lewis Scaleisinger. The petitioner was arrested on the oath of Wm. Rainy, (one of the Detective Police of the city,) which charged him with having by false prelenses obtained from M. Wilkerson, of Clinton County, $30, with intent to defraud him of his goods and chattels—and the petitioner's attorney (S. Clark) claimed that the introduction of the words "goods and chattels" showed here a variance between the charge in the affidavit, and the law under which it is pretended to have been issued. It is claimed also that at the time of the arrest of the party the affidavit was not made. Judge Hilton said that the words "goods and chattels" might be regarded as mere surplusage, and that when a substantial charge was made a technical objection of this description could not be pleaded. As to the second objection, all the Court bad to detect mine was, whether he was held under a legal warrant, and find what is the ground of detention. The charge indicates a violation of the 87th section of the Crimes Act, and the affidavit complies substantially with the requisition of the stante.

The Court refused also to accept bail, remarking PROBATE COURT.

Act, and the afflavit compiles substantially with the requisition of the statute.

The Court rofused also to accept bail, remarking that this was the province of the Police Gourt.

The petition was then remanded.

LUNACY.—A woman named S. Johnson, a native of New York State, was sent to the Asylum.

[In the District Court Edward Crapsy was admitted to practice as an attorney at law.]

INTENDS TO LEAVE Us. - We understand that Kemp G. Carter, Esq., the accomplished and gentlemanly Deputy Clerk of the County Court, intends to resign his position and leave the city. We, in common with all our citizens, regret this exceedingly, and we can assure him that, go whither he may, he will be accompanied by the good wishes of all his numerous acquaintances.

SPECIAL ELECTION .- A special election will be held on the second Saturday in November next, the object of which is to vote on certain propositions submitted by the City Council which greatly affect the welfare of the city. We give them in full thus early that they may become generally understood and fully dis-cussed previous to the election, thereby enabling voters to act intelligibly. They are as follows:

1st. To give power to the City Council of Covington to sell the bonds of the city to the amount of $30,000, payable twenty years after date, with seven per centum per annum interest, payable semi-annually at some place in the city of Covington, to pay the liabilities of the city due and to become due by the 15th of June, 1860.

2d. To authorise the City Council to levy an additional tax of ten cents on the one hundred dollars worth of taxable property in the city from 1862 to 1866, inclusive, in addiyears, according to the charter as it now stands, to enable the city to pay the interest on her bonds, and to provide means for the payment of the Marcus Smith bonds:

3d. To give power to the City Council of Covington to sail the public real property in the city of Covington, and to buy other real property, with the view of locating the public buildings in a more central part of the city. 4th. To give power to the City Council of Covington to make new Wards in the city whenever a majority of the members thereof so

KENTUCKY CENTRAL RAILROAD.—Next Saturday is the day on which the Fayette County Circuit Court, called for the purpose of confirming her sale of the Kentucky Central Railroad, will commence its session. Great preparations are being made to resist the confir-mation by such of the stockholders as are cut off by the sale. The attorneys for Cincinnati and Covington have had consultations on the subject, and will leave to-day for Lexington. Of course, no one can forsee the result, but the general impression among all parties is that the sale will be confirmed. Mr. Allnut presented a petition from the members of the German Protestant Association, stating that they intend giving a ball on Mon-day evening next, at Odd-Fellows' Hall, for the benefit of the widows and orphans of the city, and asking the privilege of "selling ale, beer and porter on the occasion."

This proposition eave rise to a lengthy dis-

This proposition gave rise to a lengthy dis-cussion, in which Father Allmut, (though he presented the petition,) enlarged greatly on moral philosophy, and declared he never heard of such an unressonable request. "Drink ale and beer at the Odd-Fellows' Hall! Monstrous!"

Mr. Mennies stated that he had attended a masquerade at that place at one time, and that Mr. Allnut was present too, and that though there was no ale or beer, yet there was plenty of champagne and bourbon.

Mr. Moore stated that he had drank some thing at Odd-Fellows' Hall once that amelled like whisky, and also something that tasted like vinegar, which was called wine. It was no violation of law to sell liquor, if for char-itable purposes, and if the venders made nothing by the trasaction.

Mr. Cambron said it only asked a privilege to do what others had done without leave. Mr. Stevenson thought ale and beer made nore widows than it ever supported.

Father Allnut, who had spoken twice, was seen to be laboring under a state of violent agitation, so much so that Council suspended the rules to allow him to give vent to his pheclinks a third time, doubtless believing if he were "gagged" he would not survive it, and his services thus be for ever lost to the city and his wisdom to the Council. He declared that when some of "them Germans and Americans got two or three barrels of beer in them, the would raise the devil;" and then sat down completely overcome.

The prayer of the petitioners was granted yeas 9, nava 3. The committee on Public Buildings were ordered to renew the policies of insurance on city buildings and two engine houses. The petition of the property-holders for the improvement of Robins-street was taken up and referred.

No other business of importance was transacted. Adjourned. CORRECTION.—In relating the theft of the pumps, yesterday, we inadvertently said "Taylor & Brother," instead of "Miller & Brother,"

NEWPORT NEWS.

NEWPORT COUNCIL .- Council met last night at seven o'clock, being half an hour earlier than heretofore; President Conlan in the chair, and Messrs. Caldwell, Allen and Solar

Mr. King submitted to the Board a lot of redeemed city orders, smounting to over $400. They were ordered to be destroyed, and the Prensurer credited with their amount.

Mr. McCracken offered a resolution empowering the Committee on Improvements to have Southgate-alley graded and paved in front of St. Paul's Church at the expense of the city.

This was objected to by Mr. King, who was not in favor of placing the city further in debt than she is at present. Mr. Hayman was in favor of the resolution, because the city had paved in front of other churches at her expense. After some little debate, and upon motion of Mr. Gideon, the subject was laid over for

The foregoing is about the amount of busi-ness transacted by our wise dads, and we are almost certain that a repetition of last evening's work would be apt to place some of our 'hard-working" members hore du combat Notwithstanding all this, Newport would possess no attractions without her Council and we say, "long may they wave."

CHICKEN STRALING .- The chicken thieves have changed the venue of their depredations from Newport to Brooklyn and Jamestown. Mr. Charles Stone, of Brooklyn, has recently lost a number of shanghais by the hands of ne villain. The man who will steal chickens will do anything that is mean.

Heavy Will. Case.—A man named John Lee, a backeler, departed this life some time since, leaving behind an estate valued at about $25,000. Of course a great struggle took place among those claiming to be his heirs, and some from Cincinnati entered suit for the property. The venue was chauged from Campbell to Pendleton County, and the case third day before yesterday, and the jury allowed the claimants $11,000. The verdict was set aside by Judge Moore, as contrary to the law and the evidence. It is a case that will make the hearts of the lawyers rejoice.

Boy Losz.—A small boy, named Mark Thomson, who resides at No. 7 Monmouthstreet, has been missing for several days, and fears are entertained that he has been drowned. He was about eight years old, had on light pants, green jacket, and shoes.
